A Japanese Lady in Washington.

But the mention of silk brings me easily to the subject of Mrs. Yoshida

(her possessions in that line are wonderful) and her reception of last Monday evening at the Japanese Legation. The official residence is in Vermont avenue and is of very pleasant exterior.

It is a large, square many windowed house, having the door midway, and balanced on either hand by a lace draped day window, whose nodding ferns and blossoms look down very brightly from their proud height—for a little spot of green in front of the house, which would make quite a lawn if spread out, gathers itself up into three terraces, giving the mansion an elevation worthy the dignity of its occupants. Within it is like a fairy palace, with works of art from all countries.

The exquisite carpets, upholstery and dainty lace draperies; the rich paintings, magnificent vases, and articles of verru which garnish every nook, all so perfect in artistic arrangement, and flavored throughout with such a captivating suggestion of Orientalism, make this place one of the most delightful at which one can be entertained.

One may feel at liberty to notice

Mrs. Yoshida's dress, for it is not a prosy affair, bought, as any one may be, at a "store," but is one of the rarest

Japanese fabrics. When this lady came, she brought with her a quantity of these gorgeous silks; and for any notable occasion she has one made up in style. On her arrival she was attired in Japanese costume, but one of the ladies of the Cabinet immediately assumed offices of guide and protector and through this friendly ministry she was soon introduced to the European dress, which she "took to" very kindly, and was soon on a par with all its details. Not so easily reconciled was Mr. Yoshida; for one day, soon after a dressmaker had been installed in their house to prepare the needed wardrobe, he came into the parlor, where his wife was entertaining callers, with some strips of silk which had been prepared for ruffling in his hands exclaiming that the silk was being all cut to pieces!

The ladies who were calling explained that it had been cut up in order to sew together again, but the affair still looked dubious to the benighted son of the East, who seemed to think it preferable that the silk should be sewed up into the nice baggy things, such as his wife had been accustomed to wear.

The dress which was worn on this occasion was of a silk that quite baffles description. The ground was of a pearl tint, heavily brocaded with flowering vines in natural colors—green leaves and flowers of crimson, lemon color, yellow and pink. A garniture of fringe, in which the colors of the silk were reproduced, and knots of satins ribbons of the same brilliant hues, completed this costume, which was as brilliant as the plumage of a tropical bird.

When the little lady first came she understood not a word of English, and had always to be accompanied by an interpreter; but now she can speak our

THE VALUE OF A MINUTE.—A

small vessel was nearing the Steep

Holmes in the Bristol Channel. The captain stood on the deck, his watch in his hand, his eye fixed on it.

A terrible tempest had driven them onward, and the vessel was a scene of devastation. No one dared to ask,

"Is there any hope?" Silent consternation filled every heart, made every face pale. The wind and the tide drove the shattered bark forward.

Every moment they were hurried nearer the sullen rock which knew no mercy—on which many ill-fated vessels had foundered, all the crew perishing.

Still the Captain stood, motionless, speechless, his watch in his hand.

"We are lost!" was the conviction of many around him.

Suddenly his eye glanced across the sea; he stood erect; another moment, and he cried out, "Thank God! we are saved, the tide has turned; in one minute more we should have been on the rocks!" He returned his chronometer, by which he had thus measured the race between time and tide, to his pocket; and if they never felt it before, assuredly both he and his crew were on that day powerfully taught the value of a minute.—Children's Hour.

A National Fame.

In conversation with a friend to-day we learned that Sharon had become quite famous in the East. Conspicuous by his absence, so to speak. Our informant says that for a month, and while Sharon's Senatorial diligence was fresh in the public mind, the people of the East all engaged in a pleasant rivalry, which had for its object the invention of new terms for the expression of contempt and disgust. The newspapers having no difference of opinion could only compete in the degrees of strength with which they gave their impression. The people agreeing with the press, there was no other direction which ambition could take, except in the comparative excellence of the abuse which was heaped upon our recreant Senator. Every class has pleased itself by canvassing the traits of a man who seems to have donned the Senatorial toga that he might become an illustration of insignificance.

We are glad to know that Mr. Sharon has attained to such distinction, as we had not even dreamed that our Senator would ever merit general abuse.

And now the Eastern people have no sooner ceased their tirade than there is an echo from the Pacific, and the San Francisco is eager to tell us why Sharon has not been in Congress. It is now said that a State Legislature was to be bulldozed into buying the Spring Valley Water Works, and hence national affairs were of small moment.

The reader will see that Western men are always original. Sharon has chosen a method of winning distinction which is opposed to the usual route and rule. Eastern men rehearse his neglect merely to increase their abusive powers, while Western men tell why it so happened with the apparent purpose of increasing Eastern contempt. It will be strange indeed if Sharon has not won undying fame.

Tuttle's Bill to Encourage Mining and Suppress Stock Gambling.

SACRAMENTO, March 15.—In the Assembly to-day Tuttle's bill to encourage mining and suppress stock gambling was taken up. The bill provides for the appointment by the Governor of a Mining Commissioner, who shall be in no way interested or connected with, as officer, agent or employer, any mining corporation, or connected with any association of stock brokers, and who shall give a bond in the sum of $10,000 and have a salary, as amended, of $4,000. He shall have a secretary, assistant secretary, messenger and porter, with salaries ranging, as amended, from $1,200 to $2,400. There is also to be an attorney, with a salary, as amended, of $3,000. The bill provides for the collection of a license of one-half of one per cent. on all transactions in stock that are on the board, all brokers to give a bond of $10,000 to pay over such money to the Commissioner; all licenses collected and all purchases or sales of stock are void where such license is not paid and are received for; no officer of a mining company is to be pecuniarily interested in any contract for mining ores, for supplies, or doing other business of the corporation. Elaborate weekly reports are provided for, and a penalty is attached to the refusal to admit any person authorized by the Commissioner to inspect the mine or books of the corporation, or make reports or estimates required by the Act. The Act applies only to corporations whose capital stock has been or may hereafter be held in the stock board, or whose shares are regularly bought and sold in the stock market. The bill was read and after some discussion made the special order for Tuesday next at 1 p. m.

Sargent's Timber Land Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The bill introduced by Senator Sargent to-day for the sale of timber lands provides that surveyed public lands in California, Oregon and Washington Territory, valuable chiefly for timber and unfit for cultivation, may be sold to United States citizens in quantities not exceeding 100 acres to any one person or association at the minimum price of $2 50 acres, and lands chiefly for stone may be sold on the same terms. The bill, however, expressly excepts from its operations all mining claims, or the improvements of any bona fide settler, or lands containing gold, silver, cinnabar, copper or coal, and all State selections under grants for education, internal improvements, or other purposes, and lands within Indian or military reservations. It is also provided that the bill shall not defeat any rights conferred by the Act of 1860, granting the right of way for ditches, etc., over public lands, or impair any bona fide claim under any United States law. The bill contains stringent provisions to guard the acquisitions of title for speculative purposes, requiring, among other things, personal affidavits to be made by applicants that the land is of the prescribed character, that they apply to purchase for their own use and benefit, and that they have made no agreement to alienate the title, which statement, together with a minute description of the land, shall be published for sixty days in the nearest newspaper as a notice for adverse claimants, etc. False swearing is to be punished as perjury, and evasion of other provisions of the act will work forfeiture of title. The bill next provides that after its enactment it shall be unlawful to cut, destroy, or remove timber from any public lands with intent to export or dispose of the same, and no owner, master or consignee of any vessel, or owner, director or agent of any railroad, shall knowingly transport the same. Any person violating these prohibitions shall be punished by fine of from $100 to $1,000; but nothing herein contained shall prevent any miner or agriculturist from clearing his land in the ordinary working of his mining claim or preparing his farm for tillage, or from taking timber necessary to support his improvements, and the penalties provided by this bill shall not take effect until one year after its enactment. The bill provides with regard to all Territories except Washington that the number of acres of land purchasable from the Government by any one person shall not exceed forty.

Representative Wren's bill allowing the use of timber on mineral lands for mining and other domestic purposes does not contain the proviso of the Senate committee's similar bill mentioned yesterday, that no timber shall be cut in mountain regions within three miles of the upper timber line. He omitted this proviso because it would manifestly impair the usefulness of the bill to a large class of people living in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, and elsewhere.

The Latin Union, so frequently mentioned in financial discussions, is a monetary league composed of France, Italy, Belgium, Switzerland and Greece, and is so named from the mainly Latin origin of the nations forming it. The purpose of the Union was to establish and preserve a uniformity in the weight and fineness of the coins of those nations, and each nation receives the coins of all the others at par. The gold coins are 100, 50, 20, 10, and 5 franc pieces, and the silver coins 5, 2, and 1 franc pieces, and 50 and 20 centimes. The coins are a legal tender to any amount for debts due to the state from citizens, but only to the amount of 50 francs between citizens. The league was formed in 1865. Since the demonetization of silver by Germany the relative value of that metal has changed so that restrictions had to be placed on the amount of coin to be issued by each government. A conference was held last month to readjust these restrictions, but it was postponed until next December. The annual silver coinage as now allowed is as follows: France, $5,400,000; Italy, $3,600,000; Belgium, $1,080,000; Switzerland, $750,000; Greece, $600,000. The ratio of gold to silver in the Union is 155 to 1. The Union exists by its own terms till 1880, and if notice of dissolution is not given one year in advance, the contract holds another fifteen years, and so on term after term.

Brick Palmer, a Workman of Humboldt, and a good one, is a large owner in the Red Hill mines, and is talked of as a prospective candidate for United States Senator, in the event of the lodes proving as valuable as is now anticipated; but he will be a candidate for the Legislature whether they do or not. That's the way to figure.

Subscriptions are being solicited in Austin for the first mortgage freight bonds for the Nevada Railway to connect Battle Mountain and Austin.

Humboldt county will probably be carried by the Workmen's party, judging from the amount of the campaign talk used for them.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency has agreed upon a bill providing for the issuing of silver bullion certificates.

Silver Bullion Certificates.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency agreed upon a bill providing for the issuing of silver bullion certificates. Following is the text of the bill agreed upon:

Be it enacted, etc., That coin certificates of denominations of $10 and multiples thereof up to $1,000 may, in the mode herein provided, be exchanged by the several mints and assay offices at San Francisco, Denver, Boise City, Carson City, Philadelphia, New York and New Orleans for net value of silver bullion deposited thereat, and bullion so received in exchange for the same coin certificates shall at all times be held and kept on hand for the redemption of said coin certificates in silver. The silver thus deposited shall be computed in said exchange at its coining value at the rate of 412½ grains standard silver to the dollar, less usual and lawful mint charges, and charges for transportation from the several assay offices to the mint for coining, and from the latter to the assistant treasuries respectively at which the coin certificates shall be payable.

Section 2.—That for bullion deposited at the mints of San Francisco and Carson City the coin certificates provided for in this Act shall be redeemed on demand at the office of the Assistant Treasurer at San Francisco, and for bullion deposited at the Philadelphia, New York, Denver, Boise City and New Orleans mints and assay offices, certificates shall be redeemed at the office of the Assistant Treasurer at New York, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to cause coin and mint bars to be transferred after said bars are stamped, as provided in the first section, to the Assistant Treasurer at New York or San Francisco for redemption of coin certificates aforesaid, and said coin certificates shall be receivable without limit for all dues to the United States.

Section 3.—That the coin certificates to be issued under this Act shall be redeemed on presentation, either in silver bars or silver dollars at the option and convenience of the Treasury.

Section 4.—That the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause said certificates authorized by this Act to be prepared and delivered to the mints and assay offices aforesaid as part of the bullion fund, and from which fund deposits shall be exchanged as coin or coin certificates at the option of the depositor.

Section 5.—That fine or standard silver bars authorized to be issued by this Act shall be stamped according to their fineness, weight and value, and the value of silver bars shall be computed according to their coining value in dollars, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby required to prescribe the necessary regulations for carrying this Act into effect.

THE SAZERAC LYING CLUB.—This is the title of a book from the pen of Fred H. Hart of the Austin Reveille. The name explains the character of the work and it will no doubt meet with a warm reception. The author's preface is a masterly essay upon lying and will commend the manner and matter of the work to every ambitious Western man for faithful study. We hope that Mr. Hart's ranting may find favor with the public, and will take occasion to remark upon it more fully after inspection. The idea of the work is entirely original, the book is distinctively Western, and these two facts should secure it a large sale. Mr. Finley Cook is agent for Reno.

In yesterday's issue we spoke of several parties who were catching trout below camp 37 by unlawful means. This morning, one of the parties, Jas. Carson, was arrested, and will be tried before Justice Richardson next Wednesday. Many parties in and near town have made frequent complaints that there were no fish in the river this year, and that a person might fish all day and not be able to catch more than two or three fish. But there is an abundance of fish being shipped and otherwise taken to Virginia City, also plenty of trout in the Reno market. We further learn that a great many trout are being shipped from Wadsworth. It was also ascertained that thousands of trout were seen in the Truckee river between Wadsworth and Carson's ranch, going up the stream to spawn. A closer inspection by several parties, whose names we withhold, revealed the fact we shall now state, of the deeds of three men, one of whom has been arrested and placed under bonds of $300. About six miles below camp 37, and some 15 miles East of Reno two rock and brush dams are found, also two wheels, and back of Carson's barn an artificial pond, into which the trout are run through a trough. Now to the business. The trout come up in thousands to these dams and wheels, there they struggle to pass over the dams and pass by the wheels, and in doing so many are killed, others are caught in the boxes on the wheels and carried into the troughs. Our fish-hawkers go forth when other men are asleep and reap the rich work of the day and night. About every other day a wagon load goes up the Louse-town road, a distance of 21 miles, to Virginia City, and the violators of the laws for the protection of fish return with their pockets filled with money. One of these dams was in operation last year and we heard of a number of fish being found dead near Clark's station. Sawdust, of course, had much to do with destroying fish in the Truckee, but now another death-dealing source has been brought to light. About one and one-half miles below Carson's ranch a party of four men are now fishing who must have known that just above them dams etc. of which we have spoken were in operation. One of these men every few days comes up to town and peddles the fish which he says, himself and party catch with hook and line. It is asserted that this same party used vulcan cartridges to catch fish. This is but a report and we publish it only as such. Here are seven men at work in almost open violation of a law passed at the last session of the Legislature, which law may be found in full on pages 179, 180 and 181 of the Nevada statutes of 1877. The law makes the crime of which the parties are accused, misdemeanor and subjects them to a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500 for the first offense. One half of this fine goes to the District Attorney and one-half to the State School Fund. Sheriff Lamb, District Attorney Cain and Constable Barlow, we understand, this afternoon visited the dam, and perhaps arrested the two men against whom complaints were made this morning in the Justice Court. We are further told that Mr. Hub Parker has been informed of the matter and will give it his attention at once. The prospects for a few first-class locals for next week are very favorable. The prospects for this unlawful catching of trout and also their destruction are still better, both by law and otherwise if the law fails. We impatiently await the result. Let the law be vindicated and our fish which are of immense value to Nevada be saved from destruction.

Penitentiary.—Chas. Wright, traveling agent for the wholesale drug house of McKesson, Robins & Co., New York, happened in upon us again today. Mr. Wright is enrolled at the Columbia Law College, and through the solicitations of his house has consented to make his regular biennial trips to the Western regions. Mr. Wright can also offer a full line of the finest imported cigars, and seems to be a success both in law and medicines.

Trains on the C. P. R. R.

Time of Arriving at and Leaving Reno—Passenger and Freight Charges to San Francisco.

We find that a number of persons are interested to know when the various passenger and freight trains arrive at and leave this point, also the passenger and freight charges on these trains. We have therefore carefully ascertained these facts and give them, kind reader for your benefit:

PASSENGER TRAINS.

Train No. 2 west-bound overland, arrives here at 11:40 p. m. and leaves at 12:05 a. m. No. 2 east-bound overland, arrives here at 2:30 and leaves at 2:50 a. m. The express train No. 4 going west arrives here at 8:45 and leaves at 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The same train No. 3 coming east from San Francisco arrives here on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 7 and leaves at 7:35 a. m. Passenger charges on any train from here to San Francisco, $16 75; charges on extra baggage, 3 cents per pound.

FREIGHT TRAINS.

No 6 westbound Emigrant train and freight, classed as a freight train, arrives here at 2:20 and leaves at 3 p. m. Returning going east as train No. 5, arrives here at 6:15 and leaves at 6:45 a. m. No. 8 going west arrives here at 8 and leaves at 8:50 a. m. Returning as train No. 7 going east, arrives here at 5 and leaves at 6 p. m. The swing trains running last Summer between here and Truckee have been withdrawn.

The freight charges depend on the quality and quantity of the freight and are divided into two divisions, viz: regular and special rates. The regular rates are sub-divided into five classes. 1st class, general merchandise, rates from San Francisco $1 28 per 100 pounds. Between the 1st and 2nd classes are "1 1/2 rates" and "maximum." "One half rates" is $1 02 per 100 and includes trunks, sewing-machines, etc. Maximum rate is $2 24 1/2 and applies to freight which must be handled with extra care. Second class freight is by the car load and applies to grain, machinery, etc.—rate, $1 23 per 100 pounds. Third class applies to very heavy freight in small lots or by the ton, as ores, iron, etc.—rate, 90 cents per 100 pounds, or $7 95 per ton, by the car load. Fourth class—$98 per car load, and refers to lumber. Fifth class—$73 per car load, and refers to wood and hay, but these articles are seldom or never shipped further west than Dutch Flat.

Cattle are shipped under the special rate class. By the car load to Melbourne, Oakland or San Francisco—$90 per car, or $76 per car to Sacramento. Dressed meats in refrigerator cars are shipped as freight by the pound; double rates for every pound over 22,000. From 14 to 20 head of cattle constitute a car load, and will weigh from 20,000 to 24,000 pounds. A car load of dressed meat ranges from 25 to 40 boxes, and weight from 18,000 to 22,000 pounds.

His Good Opinion.—"Mariner," traveling correspondent in Nevada for the San Francisco Post, who arrived in Reno recently for two days and was favorably impressed by our town and its surroundings. He was kind enough to predict a large growth in many of our industries, but his most enthusiastic praise was reserved for the Meat Shipping Association, whose buildings he visited yesterday. Mr. Kent has had occasion to note carefully the character and prices of beef, throughout the country, and especially has he watched the project inaugurated some time since of shipping dressed meats to Europe. After canvassing the various results of his observation, Mr. Kent declared without reservation that Reno beef had no equal. He had examined the San Francisco, New York and London markets, and while he had seen heavier bullocks in none of these places, had he been shown the marketable articles which he had examined at the company's works in Reno. Speaking of the opposition offered by the wholesale butchers, Mr. K. said he was prepared to prove by facts and figures that the meat shipping project would prove a great success. He thinks Reno will attract a large amount of business in consequence.

Removal.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Hines & Co. 2-11-07, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and dry goods, and sell them cheaper than any other place in Reno. We will have an auction sale Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

Jottings.

M. L. Yager is with us.

Boca has a library association and 400 books.

M. J. Kent, traveling correspondent of the San Francisco Post, has gone west.

R. F. Hoy, formerly of Reno and Verdi, has gone to Los Angeles.

Eastern trains are again on time.

Where is that silver dollar that was to be?

The river has raised more than 15 inches during the past week. Its waters are also turbid.

The Schively furnace will start up on one next Monday. All will await with great interest the result of this third, or, rather, second trial of the Schively furnace proper.

The hand quartz mills will again be in operation next week. No patents have been issued.

25 car-loads of beef cattle will be shipped from this point next Monday.

There will probably be no session of the District Court next Monday. The case which will be tried if there be court has been continued for the term.

About 100 bars of bullion will be shipped to-night from Virginia City.

No one can vote at the coming school election unless he shall have registered his name at the office of Justice Richardson on or before April 2d. We were of the opinion that those who were voters prior to this time could vote without registration. Such is not the fact however. Voters, walk up and register.

C. A. Bragg & Co are in receipt of a stock of moth carpeting. It is serviceable, not only as deadening, but excludes vermin, prevents the uneven wear of carpets, keeps out cold air and the dampness which arises from cellars, thus adding to the healthfulness and warmth of a house and saving fuel. It can be used year after year without any additional expense whatever. The cost saved twice every season in wear of carpets. Call and examine.

Was He Wanted?—A young sneak thief named Robinson was up, in Truckee, recently, on an insinuation of petty larceny. He had hailed from Reno, and prospected the trunk of Mrs. Martin at the Cardwell House. The croppings were good, but Robinson did not have time to clean up before he was detected by Mrs. M. who procured his arrest. He called for a jury trial, and as usual, the jury disagreed. The prosecuting Attorney here made an appeal to Robinson's true inwardness by threatening a prosecution for burglary, and Robinson yielded gracefully, and Judge Walker booked him for 35 days. A merchandise pipe, razor and other articles supposed to have been borrowed in Reno were found on his person, and the Republican believes that he was in a hurry to get out of Washoe.

Truckee Items.

From to-day's Republican we learn that the prosecution for trespass upon public lands has been postponed until July 9th.

Petty larceny thieves abound.

There is a controversy among the firemen over the late scorching.

Fred Bayliss is as jolly and rubicund as ever. Kind to orphans, is Fred.

Truckeeites are very much interested in the success of the Schively process.

Truckee wants a hand engine.

Truckee has the finest market in this section of the country.

THE STEAMER ON DISPLAY.—Jas. Brown, alias "Kettle-Belly" Brown, Chief of the Fire Department of Virginia City, after taking in the railroad ball at Carson night before last, and a thorough soaking at Steamboat all day yesterday, paid our burg a visit to-day. The boys of Reno Enging Company No. 1, trotted out the steamer in good style this afternoon, and showed Virginia's boss fireman what their little beauty can do. She threw three streams, then sent one stream through 600 feet and afterwards 1000 feet of hose. The engine worked in fine style, and the boys were in the best spirits. Brown did ample justice in the complimentary business.

R. E. Queen practical druggist and manufacturing chemist. All medicinal and toilet preparations made in my laboratory will be of first quality, and sold at reasonable prices. Personal attention given to physicians' prescriptions.

For Sale.—A complete set of Box class bar fixtures, including tables, chairs, and a fine counter set. Apply at this office.

MANUFACTURERS OF A. J. SANK'S

AT PALMAD. The residents of Pal-made are a very enterprising people, and indulge in all the social amenities of life possible to their situation and circumstances. The size of the town debars them from the enjoyment of travelling troupes, although they were honored by the presence of a circus last Summer; but in lieu of their deprivation, they indulge in a round of amusements and pleasant gatherings gotten up by themselves. As heretofore noted, they have built a hall, and, since its completion, have organized a club of citizens, with the design of giving a series of parties under its auspices. The first one was inaugurated Tuesday evening. The selection of that particular night was made without knowledge of Rev. C. B.
Crawford's monthly pastoral visit, and the coincidence promised for a time to be rather embarrassing. To attend divine services was to leave the party without a quorum, and vice versa. A compromise was finally effected, by which the inhabitant attended the church en masse, listened soberly and devoutly to the teachings of the servant of the Lord, and then adjourned in a body to the hall, where the merry strains of the violin struck up, and the congregation enjoyed themselves to their full bent, finding a secular pleasure in their relaxation from the strictness of Lenten season. The dance detained them until a late hour, and everyone was loud in their commendations of the inauguration party.— Eureka Sentinel.

Gen. Diaz is a very unostentatious man, and lives within his moderate means. The White House at Washington is a palace compared with the simplicity of his surroundings. It has like all Mexican houses, a large courtyard, and is two stories high. There is no soldiers nor flunkies to bar the way. The General is a man of fine presence, every inch a soldier, tall and straight, rather spare than corpulent. He wears his thick, dark hair closely cut, a medium moustache overshadowing a clean shaven chin. He is a man of about forty years of age.
His manner is cordial, and bears, like his face, the impress of boldness and frankness. In fact, there is a magnetism about the man which, perhaps more than anything else, has raised him to his present eminence, and is the cause of his great popularity.

EXCHANGING COMPLIMENTS.—Two well known lawyers were overheard exchanging compliments this morning after this fashion:

K.—I have my opinion of a man who has the barzen cheek to bring a hundred witnesses into Court to prove that a dam six inches high in reality was nine feet high by sight measurement. It's enough to send you to—but I forgot, he—I has been abolished.

E.—Don't say a word. It's not a circumstance to one who travels a hundred miles; labors three weeks; sheds a bucketful of tears, and has to borrow money to pay the jury in order to procure a divorce for a woman from her third husband.

Chorus of laughter from the amused auditors.
